The things we crave this month

Made with the bakery's own tangy Miche Sourdough bread, this Smoked Salmon Tartine from Baker & Cook is an open-faced sandwich at its best. The thick, succulent slices of Norwegian smoked salmon are complemented by a luscious cream cheese spread made zesty and herbaceous with the addition of garlic, spring onion, capers, dill and lemon juice. 77 Hillcrest Road.

With its curvaceous carbon fibre frame and a beautiful white matte finish, the FAD11 bike from Italian bicycle manufacturers, Rizoma, looks just as stunning mounted on your living room or Soho office wall as it does when navigating the streets. Its ease of switching between a single speed and fixed gear system, plus its sleek Schwalbe tyres ensure you commute with efficiency. US$8,000. www.thefancy.com

Run out of ideas to entertain your guests? Throw your very own Raclette party with Boska's Raclette Quattro. Equipped with a swivel mount that rotates a quarter wheel of cheese under its burner, this nifty tool lets your guests melt both sides of the Raclette easily. $597.50. ToTT Store.

Nothing screams New York in the roaring twenties like this summer's screen interpretation of The Great Gatsby. To coincide with the film's debut, Tiffany & Co. introduces the Ziegfeld collection, which features ropes of luxurious pearls, Art Deco-inspired ring of sapphires, diamonds and platinum as well as drop earrings. The pièce de résistance is the Ziegfeld Onyx Pendant necklace—a daisy motif sterling silver pendant centred with cushion-cut black onyx and suspended from a chain accented with black onyx beads and pearls that channels the glitz and glamour of a bygone era. Price upon request. Available at Tiffany & Co.
